W. Hawle presents his respects to the Directors -

Having just returned from the Country he has found one of his children so much indisposed as to be unwilling to leave him this evening which prevents his attending at the board.

Being engaged in several causes which are marked for trial on Monday next, he requests the Directors will be good enough to appoint somebody, who may act in his place at the election, if he cannot attend.

If the trials should not come on, he will be there.

Saturday night.
